

News From Your TOWN HALL

Of course its right smart now-days to have old Bess around not only to produce milk for the kids, but also as a source of some good real butter.

Everybody agrees to that and envies those who had the foresight to provide themselves with a cow and the tenacity to keep on arguing with her twice daily about the matter.

The Town Fathers, however, are faced with the problem of having people walking the sidewalks trip over a rope, one end of which is attached to a cow; also you may be shined up and on your way to church and no time to go back and clean the shoes off.

The Town Father was directed to prepare an ordinance making the owner of an animal running loose or tied across or in a street subject to a fine. Heretofore there has only been the cost of impounding the animal.

In order to convict the owner it will not be necessary to prove any kind of a cow, and it may be that the cow is a milk cow, or even a mule, a horse, a pony or most any four-legged animal.

The Fathers are sold on the idea of a proper zoning ordinance and restrictions for the Town, but the fee of $7,500 was not too much right smack off the bat. So they turned down the gentleman who made such a proposition.

Tom Zoning experts may be like bean pickers right now, they may have a bit too much to do. Anyhow a trial was made and undoubtedly will be followed.

Good Committees Make Barbecuing For Crowd A Pleasure

With 60 per cent of the total assistance to the Veterans of the Palm Beach County, and 75 per cent of that 60 collected west of Twenty Mile Bend the Board of Commissioners of the Veterans of the Palm Beach County District made a happy choice to conduct the official burning of the bonds out here in the tall and uncult.

The enthusiastic, sincere and effective way in which George Royal acted as Master of Ceremonies, the efficiency with which Marion B. Fleming and his assistants served the crowd the food which was prepared by the several committees proved that Belle Glade can take anything like this off in its stride.

When you remember that less than ten days elapsed between the time the idea was conceived in Belle Glade and the actual event, results are interesting.

J. K. and Mac Macdonald, Belle Glade's help and that of Mr. Pennington handled the barbecue and it was pronounced some of the best ever, Gator Tillery was the Beef Chief and Wes Willie Weeks mixed the cole slaw, Ralph Freeman was the coffee detail, while Lee Puckett was the general purchasing agent.

Joe Freedlund, Little Doc and Lou Betzner were responsible for tables and chairs and the speakers stand and decorations.

Beginners Entertained

Mrs. J. O. Jameson entertained the members of the Beginners and Nursery Class of the Methodist Sunday School Tuesday afternoon with a Christmas party at the church.

Mrs. Freeman, Richard Wills, and Mrs. A. L. Wallis assisted the hostess. Refreshments were served and a gift of a box of candy was presented to Sue Van Landingham, Carol Neil and Sharon Van Landingham, Norma Nell Starling, Linda Sue Connell, Anna Ann McClure, Mary Lou White, Cynthia Schenck, Lou Ann Guignard, Betty Ann Pope, Joanne Crews, Charles and Bill Van Landingham, Charles and Paul Corbin, Harold Roy, Charles Royal, Billy Burr, Jay Freeman, Richard Wills, Delbert Drea, Bobby White, Larry Harris, Sammy Guignard, and James Cook and a guest.

254 Car Loads Bring Ceilings On All Packed Items

Celery Rates High As Money Crop So Far This Season

Beans, as is the custom even before this late in the season, have taken a back seat in popularity and money value in the grand total of shipments from the Glades. 48 cars left this past week and they brought the celery close to one hundred grand. The boys drew straws, kissed babies, drew names out of the hat and a lot of long and loud talking to get hold of a car time to go back and clean the shoes off.

Celery, with 105 cars for the week, brought in about $225,000 for the celery growers which is a sizable sum to even these bond holding gardeners.

Potatoes are beginning to start and will get into real production during the holidays. There were only 31 cars of these with a gross return of close to $45,000. A great many farmers are just getting their field crews lined up and will get down to serious digging by the time the New Year's game comes along.

Cabbages are holding their own lacking $12.50 bringing a $1,000 bill per car. The movement on cabbage will be heavier for the next several weeks unless there is a terrible juggling of marketing conditions.

Escaroles, radishes, chinese cabbage and several new items will probably be added to the list during the coming month.

The old year seems to be going out with a bang, or at least San Diego is living up to its name with the local farmers.

The following is the car movement to date:

Table with 4 columns: Item, North, East, South, Total. Rows include Beans, Cabbage, Celery, Chinese Cab, Corn, Escarole, Potatoes, Radishes, Total.

Salvation Army Plans Christmas For Many

With a goal of 100 baskets filled with food, toys, nuts, candies and some clothing, and between 400 and 500 "Sunshine" baskets to shut-ins, sick and invalids, the Salvation Army's first Christmas in the Glades is an ambitious one for the short time in which to prepare for it.

Previously, the Salvation Army has cooperated with the Rotary Club in its Annual Community Christmas Tree for the South end of the Lake but this year the Rotary decided to abandon its annual Tree in favor of the Salvation Army with the theory that the Army covers the field more thoroughly.

Captain Blackburn, Glades Supervisor for the Army, has been busy with the boys cleaning and arranging the furniture and the girl scouts helping with the boxes. The job of getting the baskets and boxes packed already for distribution on Saturday morning.

Boys Who Paid The Supreme Sacrifice

While we are commemorating the birth of the Prince of Peace thousands of American mothers, wives and sweethearts are receiving messages "Missing in Action." Local families have received such messages about the six boys above. General Eisenhower told us sometime ago "To make sure of final victory we must redouble our effort. We will have to fight like hell to win." The news of the past few days prove how right he was and still is. Many sons of American Mothers have paid the price since last Sunday and many more will pay before V-day.

To the important home front task may we dedicate ourselves anew in the hope that from this bloody conflict there shall spring forth a worldwide and clearer conception of Christ's message "PEACE ON EARTH. GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN."

W. S. C. S. Holds Election of Officers

The Women's Society of Christian Service recently held a business meeting and an annual election of officers at the Community Methodist church.

Mrs. J. I. Freedlund was in charge of the devotional service. During the business session which was presided over by the president, Mrs. Herbert D. Reek, the following officers for the coming year were elected to take office: Mrs. Jack Royals, President; Mrs. Ralph Freeman, Vice-President; Mrs. M. M. Sator, Treasurer; Mrs. Herbert Beck, Secretary; Mrs. Clyde Doolittle, corresponding secretary; Mrs. H. L. Hancy, secretary of supplies; Mrs. R. W. Kiddler, chairman of publicity; Mrs. J. O. Jameson, Spiritual Relationship chairman; Mrs. George Ganos, Youth Fellowship chairman; Mrs. James A. Ball, Missionary secretary; and Mrs. A. L. Wallis, social relations chairman.

Mrs. James A. Ball gave a chapter "Here The United States Took Responsibility," of the study book, "West of Datinah." The hostesses, Mrs. Ivan Van Horn and Mrs. Roscoe Harris served refreshments during the social hour.

Other members present were Mrs. Mable Stallard, Mrs. F. D. Stevens, Mrs. Thomas Bregger, Mrs. E. E. Hollingsworth and a guest, Mrs. B. L. White of Huma, La.

There was a note of pride in Spessard Holland's statement that it is not always the privilege of a Governor to see completed a project that he institutes and especially one of such importance and affecting so many land owners as did the burning of bonds here Saturday.

After having chased the former Governor from Tallahassee to Orlando following a series of stunts in his outer office and listened to him offer to get Halle Selassie to help—that indicated his knowledge of the subject—it was refreshing to find that Spessard Holland had a grasp of the Everglades Mess.

Holland not only had a grasp of the situation—a study of it easily led anyone to know it was in a muddle of a mess—he took the time to study the problems and personalities. H. C. Rorick was THE personality in this muddle and took some dealing with Spessard Holland in his official position and with a knowledge of the facts met with Rorick and worked out a deal with him.

Holland had been pushed around by high State Officials—he bought the original bonds from State officials and was a bit glib. It was necessary that a knowledge of the facts met with Rorick and worked out a deal with him.

Mr. Rorick should have been here to witness the burning of the bonds. A man about whom so many things have been said in connection with Everglades Drainage and very few of them good would be a high authority in the person of our Governor say "I respect and admire him for the way in which he handled the situation. The old gentleman appreciates that we are quite sure.

The Governor complimented the members of the Board and its Secretary, Mr. T. Rorick, as well as Lewis Hall, its attorney and Turner Wallis, its General Manager.

The total obligations burned were $9,750,000 with a great many interest coupons attached which ran for 20 years. The old general settlement, made the total obligations of the district around $27,000,000. In their place we now have $4,500,000 in bonds at 3-1/2 per cent interest with accelerated call privileges.

Mr. Mayo and Mr. Speckel Dwight Rogers were among the special guests attending. Representative Hendry of Oklawaha, the Little Joe Post of Glades and a number of representatives from other counties also attended.

Unit to Experiment Station. The Governor and Mrs. Holland accompanied the visiting legislators to the Experiment Station where they were given a short and concise report on the need for made appropriations for the Station.

Gas Shortage Real In Glades Areas. One wholesaler reported on Thursday afternoon that he had to tell a regular customer "No" when he came in wanting only 20 gallons of gas to be in hauling his beans today. Furthermore, he couldn't get the gallons from any of the wholesalers in town.

There's gas in Jacksonville, but no tank cars in Jack; there's transport trucks in Tampa but no gas in Tampa. It's reported that there are one or more barges on the way down from Jack loaded with gas, but hung up on a reef.

We ain't the ODT and don't know much but we'd bet Joe Freedlund were put in charge of the barges and Shorty DeLaure in charge of the transports and told to get gas to South Florida everything would be hunky-dory within 48 hours.

Such big questions are solved though, by doing the common sense thing—it's a lot of deep copying and a lot of consideration by persons who don't know just how quick a bean gets too old.

Orange Bowl Game Still Colorful

With a native Floridian as Orange Bowl Queen, Miss Vernell Bush, and a dozen high school and civic organization bands to participate, the usual pomp and color will prevail this year at the game between Tulane and Georgia Tech.

The queen will come in on a float representing a loving cup filled with oranges and from then on the mixtures of color, drills, flashy uniforms and what-nots will be in true Miami and Orange Bowl fashion. Gowning fans will then take over, or until Tulsa swamps Tech to a hopeless point.

It is estimated that approximately 250 persons will be there from the neighborhood routin for Tech.

Ceiling Removal On Tomatoes Expected

The federal hearing on tomato price ceilings has been definitely scheduled for January 5th in Washington, LaMonte Graw, manager of the Florida Vegetable Committee, has been advised by the OPA.

This hearing will be of importance to all producers of all Florida vegetable commodities. Graw said, "as it is generally expected that the hearing will lead to the formulation of a pattern that may be followed in decisions on other crops."

Previously, the Florida Vegetable Committee delegation, representatives of Texas and California, growers, plan to attend the hearing to help present a national viewpoint on the price control program.

Official government reports on the tomato situation in Florida being tabulated in the field early this week, and it was stated that officers of the FVC that as soon as the reports reach Washington the Committee will press for immediate adjustment or temporary suspension of ceilings.

"let's get down to earth"

6th WAR LOAN

Yes, we know that buying war bonds is necessary, important, and represents a saving for ourselves. But... LET'S GET DOWN TO EARTH and realize that knowing all these things is just the first step. None of all this means a thing until we go out and buy those war bonds, extra war bonds in addition to the ones we were normally buying... and even that isn't going to help a lot unless we KEEP THE BONDS WE BUY. So, let's forget the blaring bands and the waving flags and really pitch in and BUY WAR BONDS... and then keep 'em!

WE'RE ALL agreed that buying war bonds is something that carries a No. 1 priority. We've been told that our buying of war bonds depends the speed with which our fighting men can reach Berlin and Tokyo. We know that our sacrifice in buying war bonds is in nothing to what our men on the fighting fronts must sacrifice.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

ANTHONY'S

This is not a trite expression in an effort to send you a greeting at this happy Christmas time. On the contrary, it is a greeting of genuine fellowship, good wishes and enduring faith.

Palm Beach County is one of the most favored counties of the nation. As much as we would like to let the lump come up in our throat and give away to our feelings, we will not be true to those fine boys if we do not keep the faith. All our boys want to get back to Palm Beach County and have Christmas at home once again.

Let's keep the faith while they fight. When they all come back, let's have the greatest Christmas any county in America ever had. Let's every family in Palm Beach County that had a son in the service have a picnic in Wright Field and really have a Merry Christmas. If you like this idea, drop us a line.

Luthern Christmas Day Services

Christmas Day services sponsored by St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Belle Glade will be held at the Woman's Club building at 8:30 a. m. This early morning hour worship will feature a "Service of Carols" conducted by the Rev. Arlo M. Mueller of West Palm Beach, whose Christmas sermon will center on the theme: "Copying a 1945-Year Old Christmas Pattern." The public is invited.

To the People of this Community

"Sad little personal belongings are strewn all over these bitter sands." Thus wrote Ernie Pyle from a beachhead in Normandy.

More than 2,000 bundles of these belongings, carefully collected and packed by the armed forces, are sent monthly from a Kansas City drive to homes throughout America. That's the current of victory over enemies who forced this war upon you. These "souvenirs" are enveloped with heartaches and drenched with tears.

How long this tragic depot stays in business is up to you. Every second prolongs the slaughter. Every extra $100 War Bond to shorten the fighting. Can you do less than to lend your money for speedy victory?

"What this country needs is a good five-cent nickel."—Franklin P. Adams

Pork Chops On Tinian!

"Battle News," newspaper of the United States Marine Corps, relates the story of the young Marine stationed at Tinian in the Marianas, who approached his superior officer and said: "Sir, I was attacked by a pig." Aware of the order forbidding Marines to kill any livestock found at large on the island, the officer deliberated the case in all seriousness, and after due consideration nodded his head and said: "Save me a piece."

The Doctors Come Through

A leading women's magazine carried an inconspicuous item the other day, observing that "there have been no serious epidemics and no increases in child mortality." That brief item appearing after three years of war and with 50,000 physicians away in the armed forces, is a telling commentary on the calibre of work being done by the doctors on the home front.

Three years ago medicine went about its task amid wails of "doctor shortage." Elderly physicians came out of retirement to help in the pinch. Every day, 24 hours a day, thousands of doctors labored without thought of self to pull the country through the war without a letdown in our high health standards. Vacations have been unknown and the "hours on the job" of the average doctor would appall a union official.

There are signs (although we should still knock on wood) that this titanic effort of the doctors is beginning to pay off. However, from now until peace finally comes, the medical men will need the fullest public cooperation. Such cooperation has been invaluable thus far in the emergency, and will continue to be to the end. So, remember what the doctors have done for all of us in these past three years, and help make the burden easier for your doctor when you can.

An Important Decision

Most people, in order to eat, must work. Therefore, most people, whether they realize it or not, are interested in how America's great industries will be governed after the war. There is a definite trend toward all-embracing Federal control in place of the independent management of private citizens. Aside from the point of view of most people would rather work for millions of John Browns—private citizens like themselves—or a single all-powerful boss, the government, there is the further consideration of what is best for the country.

History has proven that industry run and owned by private citizens is more productive and more conducive to the national welfare than any government enterprise could ever hope to be. An excellent comparison can be found in the American railroads which were operated by the government in the first world war and are privately managed in the present war. In the words of Nation's Business: "Today the railroads are carrying just about double the daily load of the earlier war—are doing it with one-third fewer locomotives, one-fourth fewer cars and 500,000 fewer men. They are doing it with none of the congestion and delays of that time and are doing it with their own resources. Moreover instead of costing the taxpayers nearly $2,000,000 a day, as did government operation of the railroads during the first war, today's operations are paying more than $5,000,000 a day in taxes."

Private industry has its faults. They should be corrected as rapidly as possible. But private industry has its advantages—advantages that should swing public opinion in its favor in the important decisions to come.

Ignorance Supreme

Opponents of the chain store method of distribution in Canada have issued the frankest statement yet as to how and why chain stores, in their opinion, should be penalized with special legislation. The syndicate of the Retail Food Trade has passed a resolution asking the "Minister of Commerce to protect by law retail merchants against chain stores, to limit their number and force them to make a 10 per cent profit on all merchandise sold in order to avoid undue competition."

That resolution should be an eye opener to every consumer in this country, as well as Canada. The chain stores have striven hard to lower the cost spread between producer and consumer. They long ago realized that prosperity for them could best be obtained by helping to bring prosperity to others in the form of lower retail prices. They staked their confidence on moving a great quantity of goods at minimum prices rather than fewer goods at higher prices. In the present emergency, when the governments of all nations are struggling against mounting inflation, the modern mass distribution technique of the chain stores has been a life-saver.

The idea that independent merchants were seriously handicapped by the introduction of the chain store, has not a shred of foundation. After a period of spectacular growth, the chains reached stable maturity. The added competitive element they constituted in the field of merchandising, helped rather than hindered the distribution industry. Other retailers have adopted their progressive methods and improved upon them until today the chains must fight to hold their own. They operate on a very slim profit margin. Requiring them to make a profit of 10 per cent would end mass distribution, and lower our standard of living.

Any business or group that pleads for legislation to force a competitor to charge unnecessarily high prices in order to stifle competition, deserves little sympathy.

Equivalent to Treason

Strikes have been such a common occurrence during the war that, unpardonable as they are, they no longer shock some people except in cases where the abuse is most glaring. A recent strike in Detroit was one of the latter. A jurisdictional dispute tied up work in 24 vital war plants. It is not hard to imagine the bitterness that this uncalculated for action must have aroused in the hearts of millions, with members of their families serving in the armed forces and dependent upon the products of those Detroit plants to carry on the war. They cannot be blamed for wondering what in the world has happened to the souls of well the consequences to our fighting men.

At least in the case of this Detroit strike, a government official came forth with an unequivocal condemnation. Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson wired local union officials as follows: "Your strikes are stopping the flow of ammunition, guns, trucks and tanks that are vitally needed at the front. Your strikes have nothing to do with wages, hours of work or working conditions and represent no honest grievance. Such conduct is equivalent to treason when it paralyzes plants making munitions that must be speeded to General Eisenhower and General MacArthur."

Of course, the strike ended—but that does not alter the fact that it happened and that production was held up.

Cooperation Strengthens Freedom

A movement is sweeping the country that, if given time, will reduce the issue of compulsory health insurance under a socialized medical system to an academic mole hill. Company after company and individual professions are quietly establishing voluntary health programs of far-reaching proportions.

No industry has been more progressive on this question than oil. Typical is the hospital and surgical benefits plan for employees of the Texas Company, now in effect throughout the United States. Already nearly 19,000 eligible Texaco employees, or approximately 93 per cent, have become members of the plan, which went into effect on November 1, 1944.

This plan, like many others of similar nature, banishes, from the expense standpoint, the fear of medical emergencies. It provides benefits for hospital confinement at the rate of four dollars per day for each day the employee is confined in a hospital, up to 31 days for each period of disability; a surgeon's fee allowance which provides up to $150 for some major operations; and reimbursements up to $20 for incidental hospital expenses. The plan costs the individual employee 50 cents a month. The company pays the balance.

Voluntary cooperation between private citizens such as here illustrated, strengthens freedom; compulsion, no matter how worthy the objective, tends to destroy freedom.

LATEST BOOKS ADDED TO TOWN LIBRARY

Mrs. J. F. Browne, librarian, recommends the reading of the following books that have lately been added to the library shelves of the Belle Glade Town Free Library:

Fiction: The Promise (Pearl Buck); Muller Hill (Daniels); Labyrinth (Robert Lynd); Hell, (Camp); Not Without Peril (Allis); Home Again (Scott); Sapphira and the Slave Girl, (Cather); Wind Over Winconsin, (Derleth); Heaven is too High, (McNeilly); Emperor's Physician (Perkins); Forever Amber, (Winser); Endure No Longer, (Allrand); Building of Jala, (De La Roche); Seas Sand a With, (Mudgett); Non-Fiction: Curtin Bises, (Reynolds); Surgeon's World, (Thorpe); Connecticut River, (Allis); Bayous of Louisiana, (Krebs); How Is Your War, (Pyle); Malta Story, (Rivers); Boat, (Bailey); I Never Left Home, (Bob Hope).

For the benefit of newcomers, the Town Library is operated as a free library to the surrounding communities. The library was first started in 1929 when the Greater Palm Beach Woman's Athletic Club donated approximately 500 books to what was then called "The Exergades Children's Library." The three schools, South Bay, Belle Glade and Palmetto, shared in these books when they were finally donated to the school libraries. The Woman's Club of Belle Glade sponsored the town library from 1929 to 1942, when over two thousand volumes were turned over to the Town of Belle Glade. It is now operated as a free library for the surrounding community. Mrs. Browne has been on the job as librarian during all these years and is at the library six hours daily every day except Sundays and Mondays.

Vesper Service At Methodist Church

Rev. J. O. Jameson is announcing that a Vesper Service will be conducted Sunday evening at the Community Methodist church. Miss Margaret West, choir director will be in charge, assisted by Mrs. Robert Watts. Sunday morning the Sunday School will present their Christmas program at 10 o'clock. Miss Louise Taylor, program chairman, will be in charge and the offerings will be sent to the Florida Methodist Children's Home at Enterprise.

CHRISTMAS TREES CHEAPER THIS YEAR

According to OPA District Director, Dr. Jas. S. Thomas, Christmas trees of all shapes and sizes—an ample supply to fill the needs of every family this Christmas season—are moving to market and there will be no need for anyone to pay exorbitant prices to get a tree.

"Check prices at your own grocer's store, or at some other good store or shop, before paying more for a tree than you think is fair and reasonable," stated Dr. Thomas. "You should be able to get a good tree for $1.50 or $2.00. There will, of course, be some trees selling for more. The big trees which churches and schools buy may cost $5 or $10 more. But the average family with a modest income will find that there will be plenty of trees available for them around $1.50, in heights around six feet.

BIBLE QUESTIONS ANSWERED BY THE VOICE OF PROPHECY INTERNATIONAL BIBLE BROADCASTER

Question—Where did Satan come from?

Answer—"And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven." Luke 10:18.

Q—Was it right for the Israelites to borrow money and clothes from the Egyptians when they were leaving the country? (See Exodus 12:35-36.)

A—The Revised Version uses the word "asked" instead of "borrowed," and this is no doubt the true meaning. They had given years of forced labor as slaves and the Egyptians owed them millions.

Q—Please explain the twenty-third verse of the second chapter of Ezekiel.

A—There is no such book in the Bible and therefore no such chapter and verse. Some important words of King Ezekiel, however, are found in Isaiah 27 and 35.

Q—What does "inspiration" of the Bible mean?

A—It means that the words of God were spoken or written by man. For example, the Lord said to Ezekiel: "Thou shalt speak My words unto them." Ezekiel 2:7. Amos said: "Hear this word that the Lord hath spoken." Amos 3:1. More than 2,000 times the prophets gave credit to the Lord for what they wrote.

Q—Did the apostles of the New Testament hold to what Moses and others wrote in the Old Testament?

A—Jesus said: "For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed Me: for he wrote of Me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe My words?" John 5:46-47. And every New Testament writer refers to something that Moses said or wrote. Also, the New Testament writers quote from fifty-nine different Psalms and from many of the Old Testament prophets.

Q—I read in an old book that people didn't know how to write in the days of Moses. Is that so?

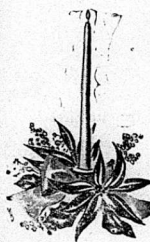

A—Some people do not know how to write today—but others do. So also in the days of Moses. Some twenty-five years ago, skeptical writers doubted the Bible story on the ground that writing was unknown in Moses' day, but modern archaeology has discovered whole libraries, not only from Moses' day, but even from the time of Abraham, hundreds of years before. Right in the Ur of the Chaldeans, Abraham's home town, they discovered a school-house with over two thousand school books.

Christmas Tree
At Camp Osceola

The school children of the elementary grades of the Camp Osceola School staged a delightful Christmas party at the Assembly Hall in the Camp Sunday evening under the able direction of Mrs. Dorothy Wright, teacher in charge and her assistants. The hall was decorated Yuletide decorations.

At the end of the program Santa Claus was introduced by Miles Anderson, camp manager, and gave presents of candy and fruit to all attending.

Miss Margaret Haynes accompanied the songs on the piano, as follows: Christmas song: 1st and 2nd grades; "Welcome"—Jean Shaw; "Compromise"—Ralph Harrell; "Christmas"—1st Grade Girls; "A Secret"—1st Grade; "Pigeon Song"—1st Grade; "Candles Message"—Jessie Bowen; "Brownies"—1st Grade Boys; "A New Dolly"—Paula Smith; "Christmas Pleasure"—2nd Grade Boys; "Cradle Song"—1st and 2nd Grade; "Christmas Fairies"—2nd Grade Girls; Song, "Baby Ball"—1st Grade; "A Letter to Santa"—Leota Throop; "Turkey Song"—2nd Grade Boys; "Christmas Pagent", 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th Grades with reading by Betty Greenwood; "In Closing," Carolee Carpenter.

Ground Water Levels
Indicate Fires

Ground water levels declined rapidly during November after the favorable recharge resulting from the October storm-rainfall. Losses in the peat soils in areas near the canals were from 12 to 18 inches in November and at the end of the month were already low enough to permit fires to damage the soils.

Following the improved water table conditions of October, the Everglades Fire Control Board caused the burning of vegetation on approximately 270,000 acres in Palm Beach County and 50,000 acres in Dade County in an effort to forestall accidental burning in the spring when lower water tables would permit greater damage to the soils. The rapid spread of these fires then the winter deadened vegetation caused some burning of soil along ditch banks and in higher areas where the water table had already needed to a point that permitted the soil to burn from one-half to three-quarters of an inch in depth. The damage done was minor by comparison with the damage usually done by fire at the end of the dry winter months.

Key wells in the southeastern area of the Everglades, which received the least October storm rainfall, showed losses of 0.5 foot to 1.5 feet, with the Peters-Homestead area showing the greatest loss. Compared with a year ago all costal wells show losses ranging from 0.2 foot to 2.3 feet.

THIRD GRADE
CHRISTMAS PARTY

Miss Frances Berry entertained her Third Grade pupils with a Christmas party Friday afternoon in the schoolroom. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments of candy, ice cream, cake and punch were served by the teacher, assisted by Mrs. Earnest and Mrs. Martin, room mothers.

*Peace on Earth
Good Will Toward Men*

We Bring You Peace

Such Peace and Goodwill as is found on the face of the earth today is the direct result of the tremendous sacrifice of youth. If ever in history there was a crusading army, the boys and girls who compose our Armed Forces are that army. They know there can never be peace on earth, goodwill toward men so long as there exists men in power such as those who rule the Axis Nations. They are bound and determined to exterminate these vipers once and for all so that the world may know the blessings of peace and men of goodwill may prevail.

Those of us who will enjoy the comforts of home and security this Holiday Season owe a particular debt of gratitude to these Young People. The very fact that we are able to enjoy these privileges stems from the courageous acts of those who may rightfully say "We Bring You Peace."
